

Dick Whittington

Scene 1

(Lights up)

Dick, a young boy, is standing in a field of pigs.

Dick: I'm fed up of being with pigs all the time! I want to live
In a place with buildings and hundreds of people.
Oh, here comes the squire's son. I've always wanted to wear fancy clothes like his.

Enter the squire's son on a horse.

Squier's son: What are you staring at, pig boy? Have you never seen fine clothes from London before?

Dick: Please sir, have you been to London?

Squire's son: Not yet but I shall go to London next year to become a fine gentleman. Did you know that the streets of London are paved with gold?

Dick: With gold? Wow!

Lights fade – scene change.

Scene 2

(Lights up)

It is evening and Dick Knocks on the farmhouse door.

Farmer: Yes, what is it?

Dick: Er, I've come to tell you that I'm leaving. I'm going to London.

Farmer: To London?

Dick: Yes, in London the streets are paved with gold.

Famer: Indeed? I think you'd better come in. Here's some money for your journey to London. Mary, Dick's leaving to go to London.

Mary: Good gracious! You'll need some food for the journey. How about some bread and cheese?

Dick: Thank you very much.

Exit Mary.

Farmer: Well good luck to you, Dick. But remember that you can always come home if things don't work out as you hope.

Enter Mary with bread and cheese.

Mary: Here you are Dick. Take good care of yourself.

Dick: I will, thank you. Goodbye!

Exit Dick. Lights fade – scene change.

Scene 3

It is evening. London can be seen in the distance. We hear the sound of many church bells.

Enter Dick.

Dick:        There's London. Wow it is golden! It's taken me five days but I'm finally here. Those church bells are calling me. London here I come!

Exit Dick, running.

Lights fade.
