

Happy St George's Day!

Grammar Task
WALT:
understand the use of commas as punctuation

Fronted adverbials need to be punctuated with a comma after a phrase. For example:

Yesterday I fell over and hurt my knee.

Yesterday, I fell over and hurt my knee.

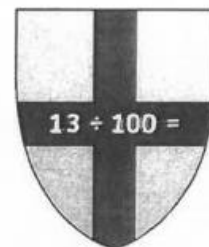

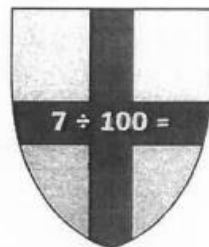

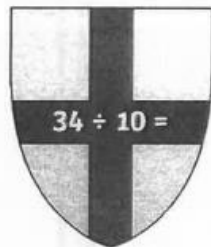

Comma added here after the fronted adverbial.

Mark the comma in the correct place after each fronted adverbial below. Copy out each sentence into your lined exercise book remembering your handwriting and presentation.

1. During the night, the owls left their nests to hunt.
2. Aged four, I went on my first holiday.
3. On Tuesday, I have my saxophone lesson at school.
4. At 3:15pm, the bell rang to go home.
5. After my bath, I got ready for bed.
